Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Larry V. Jones
4442 S. St. Lawrence
Chicago IL 60653

Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you again for selecting David P. Lloyd, Ltd., to represent you. We have agreed to represent you in filing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case.

We agree to perform legal services for you and charge you for such services based on the time necessary to complete the matters you have asked me to handle. For the handling of your Chapter 11 case, we will charge a fee of $400/hour for the principal of the firm, and $250/hour for associates. These hourly rates are subject to change, review and adjustment by the firm as a matter of firm policy. If the firm's hourly rates are increased, you will be billed at the increased rates. I may also charge you for expenses I incur in handling your case. Such charges may include, but may not be limited to, the following: (1) court filing fees; (2) the actual cost of photocopies and/or postage for volume mailings; (3) the actual cost of overnight, messenger, or other delivery services; (4) long distance telephone charges; and (5) the actual cost of court reporters and transcripts.

The services we will provide in connection with this matter will include the following: Preparation and filing of the bankruptcy petition and schedules; attendance at the meeting of creditors; preparation of a plan and disclosure statement and attendance at one or more confirmation hearings; advising you on the status of the case and your rights and responsibilities; negotiating with any secured creditor and its agents regarding cash collateral orders and ultimately a plan to pay the secured claim of the creditor; review and preparation of documents necessary to consummation of any agreement; and negotiations with other creditors as directed. This agreement does not include representation in courts other than the Bankruptcy Court, including any state court proceeding and the appeal of any matter. If other matters arise in your case that will require additional services, we will make every reasonable attempt to discuss them with you before we perform additional services that will involve additional fees or expenses. However, in emergency situations we may be forced to take additional actions to protect your rights without first conferring with you; in such a case we will notify you as soon as possible of the action I have taken and the charge, if any.

I have requested $8,717.00 as an initial payment, including the filing fee of $1,717.00 for the filing fee and the balance of $7,000.00 toward our fees. The fee amount will be deposited in a general operating account and not a client trust account. The payment of the initial payment shall constitute a full, complete and immediate transfer of ownership of the funds to David P. Lloyd, Ltd., and I will apply the funds to the payment of the legal fees and expenses incurred based on the hourly rates and other charges set forth above. However, we agree to refund to you the portion of any retainer you have paid that has not been applied to the payment of legal fees or expenses at the time of the termination of our representation. Under the Bankruptcy Code and Rules, we may be required to obtain approval of our fees from the Bankruptcy Court. The reason that we will deposit the entire payment in my general account is that we anticipate the total fee to be at least as much as the initial payment, and we are not able to simply send you an invoice for any future fees.

You understand that we will not be able to provide adequate legal representation if you fail to fully cooperate with us, fail to provide me with complete and accurate information, or fail to fulfill your obligations. You further understand that your failure to provide information, cooperate or fulfill your obligations may result in my having to terminate my relationship with you.

Either party may terminate this agreement with or without cause at any time upon giving written notice to the other party (although the Rules of Professional Conduct may limit my ability to discontinue representing you). The termination of this agreement will not affect your obligation to pay for the legal services we have rendered. We agree, in the event this agreement is terminated, to return to you all files in our possession provided you have paid all outstanding legal fees and expenses.

Nothing in this agreement should be construed to mean that either the Law Firm or the individual attorneys responsible for your case are acting as financial advisors, appraisers, accountants or other financial or asset consultants. Professionals of these kinds may be necessary to the resolution of your financial difficulties, and it will be your responsibility to consult with and retain such professionals. Our services are limited to the rendering of advice on available remedies under the law.

This agreement contains our full and complete understanding with respect to the subject matter hereof. This agreement supersedes all prior representations and understandings, whether written or oral. If you agree to all the above terms, please date and countersign this Agreement in the space below and return a copy, with payment of the retainer. Keep a copy of this agreement for your file.
